Professional Development - Online Resources March 2020

Open Source Learning Platforms(LMS)

Description: Learning platform (LMS) designed to help educators create effective online courses. Share content that you have design/develop to teach online. Requires sign up and login.

https://moodle.com/

https://coursesites.com/

https://www.latitudelearning.com/

Open Sources Online learning platforms

Description: Build skills and receive certification/degrees online from universities and private companies, through open-sources learning platforms. Requires creating a login for access.

https://www.mooc.org/

https://www.edx.org/

https://oyc.yale.edu/

https://ocw.mit.edu/index.htm

https://www.osha.gov/training

On-line Softskills

Description: Free online courses that focus on softskills such as emotional intelligence, and lowering anxiety. Also technical skills such as bookkeeping and Microsoft Excel.

www.openculture.com/

https://www.ted.com/talks

https://alison.com/

LinkedIn Learning- on the Lynda LMS platform (requires individual to have LinkedIn Premium service package)

https://ed.ted.com/

https://helpx.adobe.com/enterprise/kb/covid-19-education-labs.html

Apps

Description: Learning Apps to download and bring easy access on you phone or tablet. Courses with certification may charge a fee or subscription.

iTunes U

Harvard Extension

LinkedIn Learning

Lynda

Mango (use your jlab id for free access)

Fee-based on-line learning platforms

Description: Online learning platforms that are fee and subscription based. These sites offer leadership training, Toastmasters, presentation skills, hazard, electrical, environmental training.

https://www.udemy.com/

https://www.coursera.org/

General Employee Resources

Information offered to all employees to ensure details about financial counseling and personal well-being are readily available.

www.tiaa.org
EAP@optimahealth.com
or call 1-800-899-8174 or (757) 363-6777